

Claremont EAP is Here to Help

Many of us struggle with anxiety or other behavioral health issues, particularly in this current environment. It's okay to admit that you need help. Fortunately, there is a range of helpful mental health options provided by your employer.

Prioritizing your self-care is an act of strength. Claremont EAP has many services that can be delivered when, where, and how you need it.

Several online resources, including webinars, self-assessments, positive psychology and behavioral health resources are available.

Mental health support with a licensed counselor through video counseling, live chat, and asynchronous messaging.

Telephonic work-life balance services, including legal, financial, childcare, elder/adult care, college planning, relocation, and other helpful experts and resources.
